

INJUNCTION FOR PROTECTION: VULNERABLE ADULT

Who is a Vulnerable Adult?

- An adult with impaired ability to:
  - Perform normal activities of daily living
  - Provide for own care or protection
- Impairment is due to any of the following: disability (mental, emotional, sensory, long-term physical or developmental), brain damage, or infirmities of aging

*Per section 415.102(28), Florida Statutes

What Constitutes Exploitation?

- Depriving the vulnerable adult of their funds or property
- Depriving the vulnerable adult with diminished capacity of funds or property
- Breach of a fiduciary duty to the vulnerable adult
- Bank account misuse
- Failure to provide necessities

*Per section 825.103(1), Florida Statutes

Who May File a Petition?

- A vulnerable adult in imminent danger of being exploited
- The guardian of a vulnerable adult who is in imminent danger of being exploited
- A person or organization acting with the consent of the vulnerable adult, or his or her guardian
- A person who simultaneously files a petition for determination of incapacity and appointment of an emergency temporary guardian with respect to the vulnerable adult

Filing a Petition:

- If a guardianship is pending, the petition must be filed in that case; otherwise, it must be filed in the circuit where the vulnerable adult resides.

Effect of Providing False Information to the Court

A person making false statements in a petition for an injunction against the exploitation of a vulnerable adult is subject to criminal penalties and perjury prosecution pursuant to section 837.02, Florida Statutes.
